Roles of League Participants

(Approved Feb. 13, 2018)

Lac Ste. Anne County

- (a) To provide league meetings each year, as required.
- (b) To provide standard advertising of registration dates for each community participating
- (c) To provide score sheets, schedules, and a rule book (at the current cost) for each team.
- (d) To provide medals for players, as determined at the annual playoff meeting.
- (e) To assist area contacts with leadership development.

Commissioner:

A league commissioner will be elected at the organizational meeting each year by the members present.

- (a) To assist in scheduling of the leagues.
- (b) To assist in the assigning and scheduling of final tournaments.
- (c) To evaluate protests and determine the appropriate action.
- (d) To provide direction for Lac Ste. Anne County and the League.
- (e) Special considerations for overage players.

Area Contacts: → mandatory

- (a) Attend all league meetings scheduled.
- (b) Make decisions regarding rules and regulations.
- (c) Speak on issues presented in the name of the area they represent.
- (d) Be prepared to assist in tournament presentations.
- (e) League Rules and Regulations are to be presented to Coaches and Parents.

Coaches:

- (a) Keep up to date on rules.
- (b) Attend coaching clinics.
- (c) Provide an enjoyable experience for participants.
- (d) Ensure any information is given to local contacts to pass on.
- (e) Encourage players to attend clinics and stay to assist with the team.
- (f) Secure umpires for games as host team (plate); and as visiting team (first base).
- (g) To be a good role model.
- (h) Ensure that all player and coach information is recorded on the game sheets (first & last names) and that game sheets are signed
- (i) Both teams must submit the score sheet to Lac Ste. Anne County within 72 hours of the game.

Umpires:

- (a) Ensure you are familiar with Softball Canada Official Rule Book and Lac Ste. Anne Minor Ball League rules. A copy of the rules should be provided by the community arranging umpires.
- (b) Responsible for conduct of players, coaches and fans. Excessive swearing, taunting, physical contact or poor sportsmanship should not be tolerated. Such acts should have players, coaches or fans removed from the play area at the umpires' discretion.
- (c) All injuries, incidents and/or ejections should be documented briefly and include a signature, on the back of the score sheet to be handed in to the league office. The minor sports organization contact person for that team should also be notified of the incident.
- (d) All umpires must wear proper regulation umpire face masks.
→ Chest protector.

It is important to follow the correct channels with issues or complaints!
